

This section will briefly explain a number of different “feels” that jazz drummers are often required to play.

THE SHUFFLE

The shuffle is a rhythm in 4/4 with a walking “feel. It creates a strong trance-like groove by playing all the eighth-notes in the bar. As always, swing the eight-notes. Begin at ♩ = 100.

Here are some variations on this pattern: